

WHAT IS HUMAN TRAFFICKING?

Human trafficking means forcing someone to work or have sex for money.

The person being forced to do these things usually has their money taken.

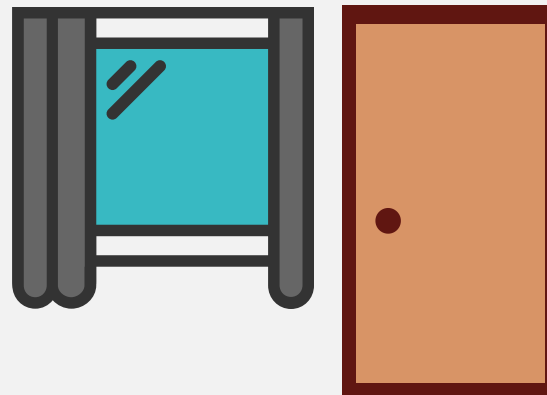

This can happen to anyone. Anyone can be a human trafficker, even people you know.

If you are being trafficked you may be threatened or abused.

You may have to work with the doors and windows locked.

You may not be allowed to talk to friends or family.

